99 Restaurant Manager Running Half-Marathon to Raise $3,500 for Boys & Girls Club
Marlborough General Manager uses half-marathon to raise funds for local kids

Marlborough, MA – On Sunday, May 24th, 99 Restaurant’s General Manager of the Marlborough location, Chris DiRocco, will be running in Boston’s Run to Remember, a half-marathon designed to honor Massachusetts Law Enforcement Officers killed in the line of duty.

As a strong supporter of the Boys & Girls Clubs of MetroWest, DiRocco has chosen to raise important funds for the organization in conjunction with running the half-marathon. Twenty of DiRocco’s family members, friends and coworkers have already donated a total of $1,305 through his online fundraising page; <http://www.firstgiving.com/christopherddirocco>. He will continue his fundraising efforts in the coming weeks to reach his goal of raising $3,500 for the Boys & Girls Clubs of MetroWest by Sunday, May 24th. The public can support DiRocco’s efforts by making a secure online donation at his fundraising page: <http://www.firstgiving.com/christopherddirocco> .

“The 99 Restaurant is a generous supporter of the Club throughout the year,” said Fran Hurley, President of the Boys & Girls Clubs of MetroWest. “The half-marathon is one example of how Chris DiRocco and his colleagues go above and beyond to support our kids. We sincerely appreciate his fundraising efforts and wish him luck in the race.”

If you are interested in interviewing Chris DiRocco about his fundraising efforts for the Boys & Girls Clubs of MetroWest please contact Caroline Cooke at 508-485-4912 or Caroline.Cooke@bgcmetrowest.org .
