Dunkin Donuts Invests Over $5,000 In Local Youth

Sardinha family sends 4 Framingham kids to summer camp

(Framingham, MA)– S F Management, LLC recently donated $5,280 to the Boys & Girls Clubs of MetroWest to send 4 kids from Framingham to summer camp for 8 weeks. The Sardinha Family Dunkin Donuts (a.k.a. S F Management) presented the check at the Framingham Clubhouse on Friday, May 29th and had a chance to meet some of the great kids that attend the Club every day.

“We appreciate the generosity of the Sardinha Family and S F Management,” said Fran Hurley, President of the Boys & Girls Clubs of MetroWest. “Especially during these challenging times, our youth need a positive outlet for their energy and the opportunity to have fun in a safe environment. The Sardinha Family Dunkin Donuts is making that happen for 4 kids this summer.”

The Boys & Girls Clubs of MetroWest (BGCMW) offers summer programs in Framingham, Hudson and Marlborough for the most affordable rate in the area:

- $165 sends a child to camp for a full week
- $660 sends a child to camp for half the summer
- $1,320 sends a child to camp for the entire summer

Over 350 youth enjoy BGCMW’s summer programs each day, from 7:30am-5:30pm. Thanks to the generosity of donors like the Sardinha Family, BGCMW is able to distribute over $60,000 in summer scholarships each year to the children and youth that need us the most.

“We at S F Management consider ourselves a partner with the community. Contributing to the development of our youth is imperative for their future potential,” said Steve Sardinha, Dunkin Donuts Franchisee. “The Boys & Girls Clubs of MetroWest provides the safe haven and positive atmosphere for the kids to utilize their energy and provides an additional medium for learning and reinforcement. Our hope is to positively affect the kids. Pro actively, we can make a difference.”
